

▶ LUCKY GIRL

Victoria Asher

A nonstop touring schedule has prompted Victoria Asher, of the rock band Cobra Starship, to pare down her wardrobe. "These days, I only wear dresses. I'm more confident in them—on- or offstage—and they're easiest to pack," says the 24-year-old, who looks to '60s-era models like Twiggy and Jean Shrimpton for fashion inspiration. "I love pieces that have just a little bit of sparkle or bareness: They're great when I'm performing, and I can wear them to post-show parties without feeling too done up."

KNIT TIE-WAIST SWEATER, $28, FOREVER21.COM

JERSEY AND METALLIC CROCHET DRESS, $386, DALLIN CHASE, STANLEY KORSHAK, DALLAS, 214-871-3600

BRASS AND MOSS AGATE NECKLACE, $135, JAN MICHAELS SAN FRANCISCO, LOLA GIFT SHOP, NYC, 212-832-7047

FAUX-SNAKESKIN "LUNETTE" HEELS, $99, GUESS BY MARCIANO, 212-226-9545

MANE 'N TAIL CONDITIONER, $9, RICKY'S, 212-768-1175

shops at: Anthropologie.com for fancy but girly dresses; AmericanApparel.net for jersey slips.

constant basic: Tie-waist cardigans. "They're so pretty layered over a dress. Right now I have three in rotation."

current obsession: Tassel necklaces. "They feel special and antique, and they dress up anything."

beauty fix: Mane 'n Tail conditioner. "It's made for horses, but safe for humans—and nothing makes my hair softer."